2015 H. Bernard Zimmermann, M.D. Research Symposium

Wednesday, April 15 2015
Health Sciences Center North, Room 4080

Zachary Baker, M.D., PGY5
Psychomotor vigilance testing as a predictor of fatigue in general surgery residents training under flexible duty hours (FIRST Trial)
Presented at the Association of Program Directors in Surgery

Jennifer Saldanha, M.D., PGY5
The impact of a mobile mammography program on rates advanced breast cancer in West Virginia
Presented at the Southeastern Surgical Congress

Jared Feyko, D.O., PGY4
Pancreatectomy in patients with impaired renal function; How Risky is it?
In Press, The American Surgeon

James Bardes, M.D., PGY4
Prevalence of oral flora in biofilm of the endotracheal tube
Presented at the Southeastern Surgical Congress

Amanda Bailey, D.O., PGY3
Comparison between ultrasound and pathologic status of axillary lymph nodes in clinically node-negative breast cancer patients
Presented at the Southeastern Surgical Congress

Patrick Bonasso, M.D., PGY2
Utility of diagnostic tests during hospitalizations for incision and drainage of pediatric soft tissue infections
Submitted, The American Surgeon